Compass Box Artist Blend

The Compass Box Artist Blend is a blended Scotch whisky that pays homage to the creative soul of Edinburgh. Since its introduction in 2011, it has established itself as a staple in the Compass Box core range, promising the high quality the independent bottler is known for. Bottled at 43% ABV, without an age statement, it boasts natural color and is non-chill filtered. This blend combines selected malt and grain whiskies, including distillates from Linkwood, Clynelish, and Cameronbridge.

TASTING NOTES

NOSE

On the nose, the Artist Blend reveals an enticing mix of fruity and sweet notes. Fresh apples and pears dominate, accompanied by hints of ripe peaches. Subtle nuances of coconut and butter biscuit lend a creamy sweetness to the bouquet. Touches of salted caramel, cereal, honey, cotton candy, and vanilla round out the aroma profile.

PALATE

On the palate, the whisky is exceptionally creamy and mild. The vanilla notes harmonize with light fruit nuances, while a subtle spiciness and cereal elements provide balance. A hint of toffee and exotic passion fruit enrich the flavor profile.

FINISH

The finish is pleasantly long, emphasizing the spicy components. Lovely oak notes, paired with cardamom, leave a slightly warming sensation.

THOUGHTS

MARCEL

A wonderfully approachable whisky that delights with its creamy texture and fruity aromas. The Artist Blend is like a friendly companion that pampers the palate without being overly complicated – perfect for anyone seeking uncomplicated enjoyment.

SASCHA

The Compass Box Artist Blend strikes a successful balance of fruity freshness and subtle spice, supported by a solid structure with an elegant oak note. Despite its simplicity, it impresses with harmonious complexity and a precise blending of its components.
