

WHISKY:EDITION

Whisky reviews. Since 2022.

Gaudrons Small Batch Release - Douglas Laing

The Gaudrons is bottled by independent bottler Douglas Laing and promises a journey through the Campbeltown region of Scotland. We take a closer look at the blend today.

TYPE	COUNTRY	REGION	BOTTLER
Blended Malt Whisky	Scotland	Campbeltown	Douglas Laing
AGE	ABV	PRICE/LITER
NAS	46.2% Vol.	62.31 €/l

TASTING NOTES

NOSE

The Gaudrons unfolds a tantalising symphony of fragrances: sweet vanilla and malty warmth combine with fresh, grassy aromas. Spicy nuances dance harmoniously with hints of brown sugar, creamy caramel and the invigorating freshness of pear peel. An aromatic work of art.

PALATE

The blend unfolds on the palate in a spicy, pithy feast: peppery intensity, strong oak notes and a pinch of salted caramel form a robust base. The flavour of roasted peanuts combines elegantly with a hint of light forest honey. A powerful pleasure.

FINISH

The whisky closes with a sweet, medium-length finish. The flavour of burnt sugar lingers gently and leaves a delicious aftertaste.

THOUGHTS

MARCEL

A whisky that's a joy to drink and brings Campbeltown to life with its spicy and sweet diversity. Gaudrons Small Batch isn't a complicated thinker, but an honest companion for enjoyable evenings – with a touch of humor and plenty of character.

SASCHA

The Gaudrons Small Batch Release impresses with a balanced aromatic profile and a solid structure that captures Campbeltown's typical maritime note well. Despite its youthful character, it shows a successful balance between spice, sweetness, and a light saltiness that rounds off the blend nicely.

RATINGS

MARCEL
80/100
Excellent

SASCHA
80/100
Excellent

VALUE FOR MONEY
4/5
Good

