

WHISKY:EDITION

Whisky reviews. Since 2022.

The English 9 Years (2013) Slicing and dicing Cask 137.18 - The Scotch Malt Whisky Society

England and whisky? Yes, they go together - and this 9-years drop from St George's Distillery proves it emphatically. With a full 67.3% ABV and a profile that almost tastes like bourbon or strong rye, this single malt is anything but ordinary. So if you're expecting a classic Speysider, you'd better buckle up - here's a whisky that doesn't just have slicing and dicing in its name!

TYPE	COUNTRY	DISTILLERY	BOTTLER
Single Malt	England	St. George's Distillery	The Scotch Malt Whisky Society
AGE	ABV	PRICE/LITER
9 Years	67.3% Vol.	154.28 €/l

TASTING NOTES

NOSE

The first impression? Peach meets malty sweetness, accompanied by a good portion of coconut. Then things get more interesting: A hint of gluten (the good kind, I promise!), creamy vanilla and toasted bread make their presence felt. These are joined by pear and other stone fruits - a fruity yet warming flavour with a little surprise twist.

PALATE

Bourbon fans, watch out! Strong oak spice, soft berries and a full load of caramel and vanilla dominate the first sip. This is joined by a subtle hint of pineapple, which provides a pleasant freshness. Malt adds depth and the spice does not hold back - a whisky that scores with its intense but charming power.

FINISH

This is where the true power of the Englishman is revealed. Strong vanilla and light oak notes characterise the finish, which lingers for a medium length and leaves a sweet trace of brown sugar and - was that banana?

THOUGHTS

MARCEL

A true adventurer among whiskies, delighting with its wild blend of bourbon charm and fruity spice. If you're looking for a bold, unconventional dram with plenty of power, this one definitely hits the mark - pure drinking pleasure that's both fun and surprising.

SASCHA

This 9-years single malt from England showcases an impressive balance between intense vanilla, oak spice, and fruity nuances. Despite its high alcohol strength, it feels structured and well-composed, making it an exciting example of modern, powerful cask maturation.

RATINGS

MARCEL
80/100
Excellent

SASCHA
82/100
Excellent

VALUE FOR MONEY
2/5
Expensive

